

Missional Business Seminar

The world is changing. More Christians from developing nations are becoming interested in mission. We need more people on the mission field, coming from more diverse backgrounds and finding new methods of funding their work.

Come and join a seminar hosted by OMF International that will investigate some new models of missional business.

LEARN about...

- NEW WAYS of doing and funding mission
- INTEGRATING your entrepreneurial spirit and gifts with mission to the ends of the earth
- GOD AT WORK in various parts of the world through Missional Business

Sessions will be presented by the following speakers:

- Nick Bekker, Executive Director for OMF International Southern Africa with 9 years of church planting experience in Thailand and 3 years experience as an International Director in Singapore.
- Graeme Codrington, an entrepreneur and author with a heart for the nations and supporting global missions through business.
- Brian, Field Director for OMF International's ministry to Muslims in SE Asia with 15 years of church planting experience among Muslims in SE Asia.

Venue: Gracepoint Methodist Church
125 Duncan Road, Glenferness, Midrand

Date: Saturday, 5 November 2016

Time:

08h00 – 13h00

There is NO CHARGE for the seminar.

BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL.

We will end with a meal at around 12 noon. The cost for the meal is R100.

RSVP to Nick Bekker no later than 23 October 2016 at za.ed@omfmail.com

