High heels were first worn by men.

In the 1600s, women began wearing heels to look more masculine, which prompted men to stop wearing them to avoid looking feminine.

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a black marker, writing on a piece of lined paper. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with the thumb and index finger gripping the marker. The marker is black with a silver clip. The paper has blue horizontal lines and a dashed green midline. The text "I'm a lefty!" is written in a casual, cursive-like font. The background is dark and out of focus.

I'm a lefty!
